The Story of Hidden Valley

Over 50 years ago, a young rancher purchased 120 acres of land nestled in the mountains of Santa Barbara, California and called it Hidden Valley Ranch.

Folks came to enjoy the outdoors and home-cooked meals, but something else kept them coming back: the delicious, homemade buttermilk salad dressing with a special blend of herbs and spices prepared lovingly by the proprietor.

Today, you can still enjoy the taste of that original creation on everything from salads and vegetables to pizza and chicken wings!

Hidden Valley® Ranch is helping to grow the movement to get fresh, locally-grown produce into the hands of our neighbours in need.

We encourage you to plant and grow an extra row of your favourite lettuce or veggies and donate the harvest to your local food bank.
